

CURFEW ORDINANCE WILL BE ENFORCED

Mayor Weaver Determined That the Law Shall No Longer Remain a Dead Letter.

EVILS WHICH HE WILL ATTEMPT TO ABOLISH

Mayor Weaver made the positive declaration this morning that he intends to enforce the curfew ordinance to the letter. It has been in existence for several years but has not been made effective and the mayor proposes to see that it is carried out. He said that the action will be taken in the interests of the parents who have no control over their children.

"There are some parents in the city," said he, "that are absolutely powerless to keep their children at home at nights. It is outrageous and I am going to help them. It seems to me a terrible state of affairs when boys ranging from 12 to 16 years are allowed to roam the streets until 12 and 1 o'clock at night. They learn more vulgarity and immorality in this way than the average citizen has any idea of. I suppose that some of the parents will be adverse to the action, when they are compelled to come down

EFFORT TO PLACE BLAME ON HEIRS

Attempt Made to Prove That Plaintiffs Destroyed Abraham Hartley's Will.

TESTIMONY NOT FINISHED

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—The contested will case in which the heirs of Abraham Hartley, of Washington township, are litigants, was still in progress when court adjourned last evening.

Byron Hudson, one of the executors named in the probated will, and also one of its chief beneficiaries, was put on the stand yesterday afternoon. Hudson was a relative of the deceased only by marriage, Mrs. Hartley having been an aunt. As a tenant of Hartley's farm Hudson had many dealings with the old gentleman and was frequently at his house. He said that one day while he was there Mr. Hartley told his niece Lina, the plaintiff in this action, who was caring for the old gentleman, to get his will and read it to Byron. On this occasion, as on others mentioned in the testimony, the witness said Mr. Hartley declared himself satisfied with the will in the most positive terms.

Abraham Hartley, of East Palestine, a distant relative of the deceased, told on the witness stand how several of the Hartley heirs, including Lina and Amos Hartley, expressed their dissatisfaction over the will at the time of the funeral. He quoted them as expressing the wish that the Hudsons had got nothing under the will and declaring that they wanted to keep them from getting the best of the property as the will provided. He said that Lina and Amos Hartley spoke of taking hold of the estate and settling it up themselves.

The examination of witnesses was continued today, with little prospect of the case reaching the jury before tomorrow. The burden of the testimony introduced by the defense was apparently intended to show that the plaintiffs themselves destroyed the original will.

VEHICLE OVERTURNED

And Jud McCain, One of the Occupants, Was Badly Hurt.

While driving on East Fourth street last evening Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor and Jud McCain and wife were thrown out of a surrey and Mr. McCain was severely injured.

A strap attached to the neck yoke became useless, and the vehicle was allowed to run forward onto the horses. It overturned and in jumping Mr. McCain was hurt. The other members of the party escaped unhurt.

A BLOODY REVOLUTION AT SERBIA'S CAPITAL

An Uprising of the Military Followed by the Assassination of King, Queen, Ministers and Princes—New Government Proclaimed.

Belgrade, Serbia, June 11.—(Special).—A military revolution broke out here at midnight. The troops revolted under the leadership of Major Angikovich, surrounded the palace, shot to death King Alexander, Queen Draga, the queen's brother Nikodem and her sister; Premier Markovitch, Ministers Petrovitch and Tudorovich, General Palolitch, the former minister of war and some of the members of the royal guard. Prince Karl Georgevitch was proclaimed king, a new government formed and a proclamation issued calling on loyal Servians to aid in maintaining order and security throughout the land. National representatives have been summoned to meet in Belgrade on June 5.

People are thronging the streets, discussing the terrible tragedy, but without condemnation. The bodies of King Alexander and Queen Draga are lying on a bier in the palace.

Causes leading up to the revolution were the tendency of King Alexander to eliminate the radical element from the government and his reported intention to appoint Queen Draga's brother, Lunjevitza, heir apparent. The people also disliked Draga intensely and were outraged at the recent suspension of the constitution.

BOARD OF HEALTH WANTS REFORMS

Tackles Many Alleged Nuisances Which It Hopes to Abate.

THE RULES ABOUT CARBAGE

The board of health wrestled for three hours last evening with many questions, and as a result of its deliberations the health officer, sanitary policeman and the board of public safety were instructed to be wider awake than ever before for the purpose of abating all nuisances, especially those that are found to be a menace to health. With this end in view the board passed several resolutions, destructively obey the ordinances, and several of the most important ones were cited for particular notice.

Four members, Messrs. Mowen, Birckett, Haines and Harris, were present. They were presided over by Mayor Weaver, and Health Officer Ogden. Sanitary Policeman Burgess and City Solicitor Davidson swelled the number and took an active part in the proceedings. The latter states that until last evening he really did not realize the importance of the board of health. He found by a perusal of the code that its powers are many and mean much to the city.

The first subject introduced for discussion was that pertaining to the right of residents to connect their sanitary sewers with the storm sewers of the city. The solicitor was asked concerning the matter and stated that either the board of health or the board of public service can prevent it. The board of health can declare such work a nuisance and stop it from that standpoint and as the board of public service has control of all sewers it can provide a rule against any such connections. The final decision of the board was that sanitary sewers must not be connected with storm sewers, and steps will be taken not only to have such sewers as are joined disconnected, but to prevent it in the future.

The solicitor, when asked regarding manure boxes that are found in alleys, streets and yards, stated that the board of health has the right to declare them a nuisance and that it is then up to the board of public service to have them removed. Sanitary Policeman Burgess raised the question. He has been appealed to every day for months by people wishing action be taken whereby owners of stables should be forced to remove the boxes. In some sections of the city the complaint is made that around the stables the filthy conditions are sufficient to spread disease at an alarming rate.

CRUELTY TO HORSES TO BE STOPPED

One Suit Has Already Been Entered And More Are Promised.

Action is bound to be taken to prevent cruelty to animals in the city. Three cases of brutal and inhuman treatment came to light yesterday and as a result a warrant was issued in the court of Squire McLane for the arrest of one John Doe, and it is said that others will be issued before the end of the week.

At the city hall this morning a well known business man appeared and stated that he saw a man unmercifully whipping a team of horses on Broadway and that he had seen the same action yesterday. The report started a discussion of the barbarous happenings and Chief Wyman stated that he intends to arrest and prosecute every man that is reported committing such deeds.

LEETONIA DOCTOR HELD FOR COURT

On a Charge of Assault and Battery to Which He Pleaded Not Guilty.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—Dr. Harry Blazer has been bound over to court in the sum of $300 on a charge of assault and battery, to which he pleaded not guilty, in the court of Justice A. P. Van Fleet in Leetonia. The charge was preferred by Walter Hoffert.

The question raised at the last meeting.

LISBON IS READY FOR THE VISITORS

CENTENNIAL ARRANGEMENTS NEARLY PERFECTED.

Brilliant Illuminations and Superb Decorations Will Be Abundant.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—Lisbon is already beginning to assume centennial airs and when the time comes for that event next week even the life-long residents will feel like strangers in a strange land. Tom Johnson's big tent is here and its canvas is spread on a lot on Chestnut street but a short distance from the business part of town. Workmen are busily engaged constructing the large band platform in the center of it for the grand ball to be given Wednesday evening.

Work is also in progress on the speakers' stand and the placing of the seats, all of which must be completed soon to give the decorator time to perform his part of the work. The decorations are to be something elaborate and will be arranged by the firm that had the contract for the decoration at the Chillicothe centennial. Nearly all of the material and designs will be furnished by the contractor.

A large platform to serve as a band stand and reviewing stand from which Senator Hanna and other notables will review the military parade is being erected on the southeast corner of the square opposite the court house. The square at night will be brilliantly illuminated by a number of arc lights and the shade trees in the park have been trimmed to a considerable height to admit of a better effect in this particular.

The Young Men's Lyceum club has tendered the freedom of the club room to the local Elks who will make the visiting brethren of that order welcome there. The lodge rooms of the Grand Army, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Knights of the Golden Eagle will also be open to visiting members of the respective orders. Similar action has been taken by the Lisbon Business Men's association, members of all business associations in the county being invited to make the association rooms their headquarters.

BIG DAMAGE SUITS

Against Railroad Company Will Be Tried in the United States Court.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—The Pennsylvania company filed its bond with the clerk of courts here yesterday afternoon for the removal of two damage suits in which the company is the defendant, to the United States court in Cleveland. The cases are those of Mary Coanno, of Salem, who has sued for $10,000 for the death of her husband, and Agnew Bros., of Wellsville, who have sued for $5,000 claiming that their coal yard and business was damaged to that extent by the construction of a switch.

BIG IMPROVEMENT ON STREET RAILWAY

Manager Healey Proposes to Re- construct the Track to the East End.

GOOD WORK ALREADY DONE

General Manager L. W. Healy, of the East Liverpool railway, has announced that the improvements now being made on both equipment and trackage will be continued until the entire line has been included. Some months ago it was given out by Mr. Healy that one company would double track its line from the city proper to the East End, and the consent of many of the property owners along the route was secured.

This plan has not been abandoned by any means, and the company is now debating whether or not to include this work in the other improvements. At any rate the present track along the river road is to be torn up before the passing of the summer and relaid with heavier iron. The road bed will be ballasted with rock and graded up above the "mud line."

For a month or more a large force of men have been at work on the line between this city and Wellsville, ballasting the track with rock and picking up the bad joints. This work has been completed with the exception of a very small section. The street car men say the improvement makes it possible to maintain the schedule with ease, as a higher rate of speed with the same degree of safety is possible.

The task of rebuilding the track along the river road will be a stupendous one and will cost many thousands of dollars. When the work is completed, and it will be before winter, the entire line will be in an excellent condition for the rough weather, and its patrons can rest assured of better service than ever before.

Besides the track improvements the company has added four fine double track cars to its equipment and when all have been placed in service the schedule can be filled with big cars.

NEW MAP OF THE CITY

Is Now Being Prepared, Especially for the Use of Insur- ance Men.

The Sanborn-Perry Map company has a force of men at work here drawing what is known as a fire map of the city, for the use of insurance men. The map will show the location of every piece of property in the city, with the owners' names in the case of factories and business houses. It also gives the streets and the street numbers and the distances from one building to another.

The last map of the kind for the city was made in 1897, and the growth of the town and its suburbs has been so great since then as to make a new map imperative to show the changes.

DELAY OF COUNCIL IN TAKING ACTION CAUSES IMPATIENCE

Mayor Weaver Is Anxious to Have the Police Chief Question Disposed Of Permanently.

The board of public safety will hold a meeting this evening. It was the desire of the board to take action relative to the position of chief of police at this meeting, but owing to the non-action of council at the meeting Tuesday evening the board is powerless to take up the question and the conditions will remain unchanged until council does take the necessary steps.

Mayor Weaver and the members of the board are unable to discover why council failed to pass the ordinance creating the office of chief of police and will insist that the matter be taken up. The mayor cannot appoint a permanent chief until the position is created, and of course the board cannot confirm one that has not been appointed.

From a technical standpoint the city is absolutely without a chief of police, fire chief and officers to serve under them. The code says that council shall pass an ordinance fixing the number, salaries and bonds of all officers and other members of the police and fire departments.

Relative to the chief of police it says that the police department "must" include a chief of police. Though it has been intimated that Mayor Weaver did wrong in making a temporary appointment, he feels that as the code plainly gives him authority to make a temporary appointment and says nothing about who the man shall be, his action was perfectly legal.

The mayor said this morning, when speaking of the question of the age limit, that he inspected the rules compiled by Judge Okey at Columbus recently and discovered that although the judge provided a limit in age, height and weight on every other class of officers, the chief of police is exempt from all restrictions. He feels that any decision made by the board should rule according to merit alone.

The question is one of general interest and the sooner action is taken the quicker suspense will be allayed.

CHILDRENS' HOME WELL CONDUCTED

Board of Visitors Express Approval of the Management of the Institution.

The board of visitors to Columbiana county charity and public institutions, consisting of Dr. William Moore, of Lisbon; Messrs. Ellison, of Damascus, and Wallace, of Newley, and Mrs. Henry Aten, of Wellsville; Mrs. George Holmes, of Salem and Mrs. George P. Kirk, of East Liverpool, convened at the Fairmont Children's Home near Alliance Tuesday. The board found the Home in most excellent condition. At the present time 35 children are enrolled and all are in good health. The schools, including a fine kindergarten and primary department, are still in session and the work being accomplished in the several grades is of superior quality. The Home and the cottages are models of neatness. The dormitories, where are located the little beds, all dressed in white, are immaculate.

The ladies having charge of the various cottages and the schools are very proficient and faithful in the discharge of their duties. The only criticism of the board was that the teachers were not as well paid as they should be. Their hours of work are long, and they receive only $15 per month, including laundry and board.

Flowers and choice shrubbery with a well kept lawn make the exterior of the home, with its wealth of shade trees, a beautiful spot. The fine condition of the Home is the result of the skillful management and the untiring devotion to this institution of its efficient superintendent, M. E. Southworth and his estimable wife and to the board of trustees, of which Hon. David Boyce was many years a member and succeeded by N. A. Frederick.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

POTTERY HISTORY.

Many clever women in this country, who now make a specialty of collecting china, porcelain and earthenware which has been in the United States for more than 100 years, unite patriotism with ceramics. The field is much larger and more difficult than appears at sight. The very age shuts out thousands of specimens which are eagerly sought for by ordinary collectors. The difficulty to the lover of the antique is great, because most of the owners of these precious wares refuse to part with them. There are several collections in New York which are of unusual size and interest. In one there has been a special effort toward the accumulating of Indian, Zuni, Maya, Aztec and Toltec wares. Very many of these are made of simple earthenware decorated in black and other dull colors, and only a few have any glaze.

Of the second class there are many kinds of table ware brought over by settlers in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. The modern age is apt to overlook the simple fact that in the old days all ceramic goods were harder to get and more expensive than at the present time. Emigrants carried table ware with them, where to day they bring merely clothing and money. The Pilgrims and Puritans brought out English and Dutch ware; the Huguenots seemed to have possessed the finest taste in this line, and imported to this country fabrics from the kilns of France and Italy. The knickerbockers were staunch patrons of Delft, Leyden and other establishments in the Netherlands. The Palatines of New York, who moved to New Jersey and Pennsylvania, betrayed their love of the Rhineland by a goodly assortment of the heavy, dark-glazed pottery which prevailed in that district in the first half of the eighteenth century. This love of home was manifested by the Spanish settlers in California, Mexico, Louisiana and Florida, who amid their household goods had many delicate bits of the fine wares of Spain. Rarest of all were Scandinavian goods conveyed to the New World by the Swedes and Finns, who came here in the seventeenth century.

Not more than 250 pieces are known to be in existence today, most of which are held in Philadelphia and other Pennsylvania communities. In the third class are goods turned out by the Colonial and post-Revolutionary potteries. Of these there are at least 10 in operation altogether, which had a fair output. The workmanship was somewhat clumsy, although now and then designs are encountered which possess considerable merit. Some of these are now held in the Widener, Innes, Morgan and Storer collections. The prices paid for these goods are fabulous in the extreme.

WHY MORGAN CAME.

An injustice was done to John W. Morgan, of Trenton, when it was stated that he was in the city to gather statistics and examine into the condition of the western jiggermen, as the representative of the eastern branch of this trade, so that the uniform scale of the west can be adopted by them. While Mr. Morgan was in the city last May he liked it so well that he decided to locate here permanently, and it is for this purpose that he is now here. He will move his family here in a short time.

PIPE PLANT SOLD.

It is reported that Thomas Buckley, a well known potter, has purchased the clay pipe works on Eighth street, owned and operated for many years by Thomas Glenn. The plant, owing to Mr. Glenn's advanced years, has not been operated for some time. Its capacity at the present time is rather limited, there being but one small kiln but it will be increased as the business warrants. Quirey Adams, a son-in-law of the purchaser, will have charge of the plant. The output is confined to clay smoking pipes, and it is considered by many that there is a good opening for this line of ware.

DEMANDS OF SANITARY MEN.

The owners of the Trenton sanitary plants, within a few weeks, will likely be called upon by the Brotherhood to appoint a committee to meet a similar committee from the sanitary workers for the purpose of installing a uniform price list for kilnmen, packers and saggermakers employed in sanitary potteries. Another question which will come before the conference is one asking that sanitary pressers be given the privilege to pay their help and not the firm. This last request comes from the potteries outside of Trenton, as the custom of allowing the pressers to pay their own help is pretty thoroughly observed there.

JEFF-WHITE MURDER TRIAL.

They Are Being Tried Jointly—Indictment Charging Them With Conspiracy to Murder.

Jackson, Ky., June 11.—The third day of the trial of Curtis Jeff and Thomas White, for the murder of Attorney J. B. Marcum, was marked by the evidence of B. Lewen, the first and leading witness of the commonwealth. Jeff and White are being tried jointly, the indictment charging them with conspiracy to murder. It is charged that White entered the court house while Marcum and Ewen were standing together and as he passed them gave the signal to fire. Ewen testified to seeing White just before and after Marcum was shot, and to seeing Jeff just after Marcum was carried out of the court house. Ewen's testimony corroborated the statements he had made previously regarding both prisoners and he withstood the most rigid cross-examination.

Other witnesses examined during the day were Judge J. C. Bache, John M. Patrick, Kelly Kash, County Attorney Blanton and William Combs, a farmer. Their testimony was confirmatory of that given by Ewen, and was not shaken in the cross-examination. In the morning, when the witnesses were ordered out of the court room, attorneys for the defendants asked that County Judge Hargis be allowed to remain.

On the objections of attorneys for the commonwealth being sustained Judge Hargis retired with the other witnesses. When the court reconvened in the afternoon the daughter of County Judge Hargis, the leader of the dominant feudists, occupied a seat beside the prisoners. At the afternoon session attorneys for the defendants moved to disperse with the presence of troops in the court room and were overruled. Inspector Hines, from Frankfort, arrived under orders from Governor Beckham. It is generally believed that he will report how the trial is conducted so far as Judge prosecutor, jury and officials are concerned, and much interest is taken in his presence.

FIVE MEN KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Terrible Work Done by a Storm in a Country District in Ohio.

M. N. BUILDING A BARN

Were Struck, a Heavy Timber Which They Were Carrying Being Splintered And Killing Them Instantly. Man on Horseback Also Killed.

Medina, June 11.—Lightning at Acme, a small town nine miles southeast of here, did terrible work Tuesday afternoon. Four men, well known in that part of the county, were killed outright, and a fifth stunned and perhaps fatally hurt. At Lodi, a lad of 12 years was killed about the same time by lightning and a companion prostrated.

The dead at Acme: WILLIAM REBMAN, JOHN SHOOK, JOHN WINKLER, CLARK FISHER. Killed at Lodi: CLEM CARVER.

The four men who met death at Acme, with a companion named Jacob Means, were engaged in rebuilding a large bank barn on a farm owned by J. F. Long, a well-to-do farmer. The farm was occupied by Rebman, who was killed. The place is also known as the Peter Leichey place.

Means, who was perhaps fatally shocked by the lightning, was the contractor of the job, employing the rest of the men including Rebman, who was also a carpenter. Fisher was principal of the public schools at Richmond, but during the summer vacation was doing carpentering.

The storm, which swept over the county with such loss of life, appeared to be only an ordinary summer shower, and very little rain fell. When the storm approached the men working on the barn were loath to drop their tools for so small an affair and worked until the rain began to fall. Then some one suggested that the take shelter inside the partly completed barn. A heavy sill was lying in the yard and the four men shouldered the heavy timber to take it inside to work on during the storm.

The four men were walking toward the building Indian file with the timber on their shoulders, when, with a blinding flash and a deafening roar, a bolt of lightning came from the clouded sky and struck the sill. The timber was splintered into bits and the men thrown to the ground. Death was probably instantaneous. Their bodies were horribly burned in places. Means, the contractor, who stood several feet away directing the work, was thrown to the ground and neighbors bore him away unconscious. It is thought he will die. The news of the accident nearly terrorized the little community. Three of the men were married with families.

Clem Carver, killed at Lodi, was working with several others in the swamps near there when the storm approached. Carver jumped on his horse and rode to a barn for shelter. Just as he reached the shelter he was struck by lightning and instantly killed, as was the horse. A companion named Holmes was rendered unconscious, but will recover. Throughout the swamps the force of the shock was felt and many were affected.

MAYOR MUST APPEAR IN COURT.

True Bill Found Against City Executive for Removing Soldiers Without Cause.

Pittsburg, June 11.—William B. Hays, mayor of Pittsburg, will have to answer at the bar of the criminal court of Allegheny county at this term to the indictment handed down yesterday by the grand jury, charging him with violating the law of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which prohibits the discharge of old soldiers without cause. The prosecutor is John C. Haymaker, district attorney, and a recent competitor of Mayor Hays for the office which the latter holds. The prosecuting witness will be Samuel Moore, a resident of the Sixth ward and a battle-scarred veteran of the Civil war, who was removed from the position of ordinance officer by Mayor Hays on March 31 for political reasons.

Upon the result of this case depends the positions of 55 old soldiers who were removed by the present city and county administrations for political reasons.

The case will attract attention all over the state and in other states, as it is the first time in Pennsylvania that a test has been made of the power of state, county or municipal authorities to remove old soldiers from public positions with an act on the statute books prohibiting the same.

Fifteen Hundred Employees Demand Discharge of a Carpenter Because He Is Unfriendly to Union.

Huntington, W. Va., June 11.—The fight between the members of council and Mayor C. M. Buck, which has been on here for two weeks past, took a sensational turn this morning when almost 1,500 employees of the Chesapeake & Ohio shops, including every branch of the industry, even to the office force, went out on strike.

The employees at the institution demanded that William R. Davis, member of council from the Second ward, who is a carpenter at the shops, be discharged by the railway company because he was unfriendly to the union, he having voted along with a majority of the councilmen to take from Mayor Buck his authority to name standing committees for the year, which gave the city a police force not liked by the mayor.

A CRISIS AVERTED.

Premier Balfour Temporarily Smooths Over Differences in Cabinet.

HE MAKES AN IMPASSIONED PLEA

With the Exception of Some Irreconcilable Malignants the Union Party is Greatly Relieved at the Outcome of the Debate.

London, June 11.—By a dexterous and extraordinary speech Premier Balfour temporarily smoothed over the differences in the cabinet, relieved Colonial Secretary Chamberlain of any necessity of resigning, and for the moment averted a crisis which threatened the Unionist party. This Mr. Balfour accomplished without committing the government either to protection or free trade, though the effect of his speech will generally be taken to mean that the tariff issue is to be shelved for the present. Henry Chaplin's amendment which gave rise to the most interesting debate of the present parliament, was defeated by the overwhelming majority of 395 votes, composed of Unionists, Liberals, Irish members, Mr. Chaplin's adherents, and almost all the followers of the government, while many others of the Conservative party abstained from voting.

It was half past ten o'clock when Premier Balfour sprang to his feet to reply to the taunts of the opposition and appeals from his own party.

For two days the House of Commons has rung with echoes of discussion within the cabinet and dissatisfaction without. The premier was loudly cheered. He had scarcely commenced to deal with Mr. Chaplin's amendment before he was interrupted by a hurricane of applause and ironical cheers at the entry of Mr. Chamberlain, who had been absent hitherto throughout the evening. The colonial secretary dropped into his accustomed place. The house was now packed with peers, members of the house, and spectators, as it has not been since the days of home rule, and they waited and listened in tense expectation.

In a whimsical vein Mr. Balfour explained that the only reason that the corn tax was put on was because the government wanted money and the only reason it was taken off was because the government wanted money no longer.

Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, the Liberal leader, appealed for an opportunity for the house to more fully discuss the issue raised. The members of the house trooped into the lobby to vote against Henry Chaplin's amendment, the general comment being "Balfour has saved Chamberlain."

The colonial secretary himself, jubilant, said: "Our friend, the enemy, is nonplussed this time."

With the exception of some irreconcilable malignants the Unionist party is greatly relieved by the outcome of the debate, all the members expressing gladness that the crisis was passed, at the same time believing that the same cabinet could not long continue to embrace such opposites on the fiscal policy of Great Britain as Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Chancellor of the Exchequer Ritchie.

German Syrup.

We want to impress on our readers that Boschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specific, such as pure tar, extracts of ginseng, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasm of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectation in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

Jim Dumps once found he must endure

A Rejuvenated Being.

"Force" is not a heavy food, but it is the substantial foundation which begets cheer. If it was eaten more frequently, and the nervous, indolent and tired eschewed, people would not complain in the morning about not feeling well. No more heavy dinners for me when I can get "Force." Why, since I have been eating it I feel like a rejuvenated being.

EAST END

PERSIAN MISSIONARY
TALKS OF HIS PEOPLE

Dr. Yohannon Delighted a Large Audience at Second Presbyterian Church Last Night.

One of the most entertaining lectures heard in a long time by the people of the East End was that of Dr. Yohannon, a young Persian, in the Second Presbyterian church last night. The auditorium was well filled and all were very highly pleased. The lecturer is a young man of extraordinary attainments and one of the few men of his country who have come to the United States to secure an education.

Dr. Yohannon came to this country seven years ago and has been educating himself as a medical missionary. He will return to Persia during the summer and devote his life to the well being of his people. His lecture last night dealt with the manners, customs and religion of the Persians. At an early age he became a school teacher at a salary equivalent to $2.50 a month in American money. Money in that country has a greater purchasing power, however, his subsistence costing him but 25 cents a month. After he had been teaching for some time his salary was increased to $2.75 a month, and later to $5 a month. Most of the people of Persia are Mohammedans, the lecturer stated, although a few of the people hold to other beliefs. There are a few Christians, but they do not make an open avowal of this faith, because of persecutions.

MORE NEW HOUSES

Midway Land Company And Others Are to Keep Up East End's Building Boom.

It was announced this morning that the Midway Land company would soon let the contracts for the erection of four more new dwelling houses on its property south of Mulberry street. Of the seven dwellings just completed by the company on this property but one remains unsold. The contracts for the new structures will provide for their completion during the summer.

Many new buildings in other parts of the East End are being commenced every day and many are being completed. In spite of this fact there are no empty houses and new people who come in daily find it hard to secure a home.

Two Missionary Societies.

The Women's Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church will hold a social this evening at the home of Mrs. John Grant, on Pennsylvania avenue. Refreshments will be served and a pleasant evening is anticipated.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Erie street M. E. church will give a social this evening at the home of Mrs. Eme-line Hamilton, corner Chestnut and Ohio avenues. A cordial welcome is extended and a good time is assured to all.

Reviewers Were Visitors.

The East End was visited this morning by the board of review for East Liverpool, composed of Messrs. J. S. Hilbert, T. H. Arbuckle and C. A. Ferguson. The visit had no particular significance, the board merely wishing to have a personal knowledge of the location of certain East End properties.

Prominent Italian III.

Emanuel Campanella, commissary agent for almost the entire number of Italians employed in railroad construction along the river division of the C. & P., has been very seriously ill at Industry, threatened with typhoid fever. Dr. Mowen was called to that town to see him this morning.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Lena Finley has returned from a brief visit with relatives at Georgetown.

Miss Lola Duncan, of Ohioville, is the guest of Mrs. Archie Searight, of Maple avenue.

Miss Mina McDaniel has gone to Winfield, where she will spend the summer with relatives.

Mort Calhoun, jiggerman at the Klondike, has been idle several days, owing to the illness of his crew.

Quite a number of the members of Eureka council, P. H. C., will attend the social to be given this evening by the new Pleasant Heights lodge.

Mrs. Alice Winegrove, of Erie street, has purchased one of the houses built by the Midway Land company in its addition west of Mulberry street. She will occupy the house next Saturday.

MANY CURES IN EAST LIVERPOOL

Will Reed Reports Good Work Done By Hyomei in Curing Catarrh.

It is seldom that a remedy has made so many cures in so short a time as Hyomei has in curing diseases of catarrh in East Liverpool.

Will Reed has so much faith in the powers of Hyomei to cure catarrh that at the very start he sold the remedy under his personal guarantee to refund the money in case it did not give satisfaction. As yet he has had but two customers who asked him to refund the price, while scores have told of the remarkable cures accomplished by this medicine.

Hyomei cures catarrh by a new principle, by breathing balsamic air, not by pills, drugs or nauseating liquids. It is the only positive cure ever discovered for this disease, and it is also the pleasantest method of treatment.

The outfit consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei; the total cost being $1.00. The inhaler will last a lifetime, while for treatment of catarrh a bottle of Hyomei is sufficient for more than a month's use. Simply drop a little of the Hyomei into the inhaler and then breathe it for a few minutes four or five times a day. The air filled with the balsamic healing of Hyomei enters the air passages and lungs, killing the disease germs, soothing the irritated membranes and effecting a permanent cure.

If a cure is not gained ask Will Reed to return your money and he will do it without question.

No fairer way of selling a medicine was ever adopted by any one. You ought to begin the use of Hyomei to-day on this plan.

is entertaining his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hopkins, and son David, all of Shawnee, O. They arrived this afternoon and will remain a week or more.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Toronto will have a Real law election June 29.

Dr. A. R. Liber, of Hanoverton, owns a valuable Stradivarius violin.

Massillon now has an anti-spitting ordinance with a penalty of $1 to $5 per spit.

O. F. Drayer, a C. & P. brakeman, was squeezed between cars at Kensington and had his thigh broken.

James Russell, of Saineville, believes he is the oldest married man in the county. He got his marriage license in 1832.

Louisa Jenkins, whose home was in Martin's Ferry, died in a Massillon saloon under circumstances indicating that she had been doped.

Walter Smith, aged 10, son of Wesley Smith, near Newcomerstown, was accidentally shot dead by a brother while hunting woodchucks.

All the machinery at the Follansbee tin works, across the river from Steubenville, is in position and it is expected that the plant will be put in operation very shortly.

Former pupils and citizens of Steubenville gave a reception in the Congregational church to Miss Margaret Leslie, who has been a teacher in the public school for half a century and has just retired.

Near St. Clairsville Junction, four miles west of Bellaire, the next few months will see at least five new mines opened and the mines already there will be vastly improved. A new mining town will be built.

William Armstrong, aged 75 years, a prominent farmer residing on the pike between New Alexandria and Smithfield, has a baby on his hands and is anxious to find the parents. It was left on his doorstep.

The Doctor's
Part In
Race Suicide

By Dr.
ROLAND G. CURTIN
of Philadelphia

HAVE never heard any one who has given explanations of the question of "race suicide" speak of the PART THE DOCTOR TAKES IN THIS GREAT TRAGEDY.

By high fees he may increase the family expenses to such an extent as to plunge the young husband into debt. Where formerly in maternity cases the usual charges were from $10 to $25, they have advanced to as high as $250.

In the matter of nursing practice has changed. Formerly but little nursing was needed. Now it is necessary to have a trained nurse for weeks.

THE LARGEST NUMBER OF CHILDREN COMES FROM THE UNASSIMILATED FOREIGN POPULATION. Therefore it occurs to me that in thirty years the balance of political power will be in the hands of these children and not in those of the "strain" that has brought our country to its present position among nations.

Among the causes of the diminished birth rate not generally mentioned are the changes in the method of living. The apartment house, which is growing in favor, is a bad school for good wives and mothers, especially those that are young. CHILDREN ARE NOT WANTED in such quarters. The servant girl question often drives families to these houses. The population in the apartment houses, as a rule, turns a cold shoulder upon the woman who is a fond mother or commiserates her for her enslaved position.

ANOTHER CAUSE IS THE PURSUIT OF MANLY CALLINGS BY WOMEN. First, it makes them feel independent of marriage, and, second, they take the work from the men, so that THE MEN CANNOT AFFORD TO MARRY.

Another cause is the nervous trades, which bring on exhaustion and unfit women for maternity and housekeeping. CLERKS, STENOGRAPHERS AND SHOP AND FACTORY GIRLS ARE TO BE INCLUDED IN THIS CATEGORY.

THE NEW GAME LAWS
OF WEST VIRGINIA

The Times And Seasons During Which Hunting Is Legal in the State.

The revised game laws of West Virginia contain the following provisions:

It shall be unlawful for any person to catch, kill or injure or pursue, with intent to catch, kill or injure, any ruffed grouse, prairie chickens or wild turkey between the 15th day of December and the 15th day of October following, or any quail or Virginia partridge between the 20th day of December and the 1st day of November following, nor shall any person kill more than 12 quails or partridges in any one day; or any blue winged teal, mallard or wood duck, wild goose or brant at any time between the first day of April and the first day of October inclusive; or any squirrel, rabbit or hare between the first day of January and the 15th day of September following; provided that nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent resident land owners of this state from catching, killing, injuring or pursuing in the manner prescribed by law any such squirrel, rabbit or hare at any time upon their own lands.

Clear white clothes are a sign that the housekeeper used Red Cross Bag Blue. Large package 5 cents.

Accidentally Shoots His Brother.

New Philadelphia, O., June 11.—Three sons of Wesley Smith, a well-to-do farmer near Newcomerstown, went out into the woods yesterday. Wesley, aged 16, took a gun to shoot woodchucks. The three got to playing, when the gun went off, and Walter, aged 10, was shot in the left side and died instantly. Charles, aged 19, received a number of shot in the left eye. Dr. Gundy extracted 113 shot from the dead boy's body. Eighteen or more were taken from the head and face of the other.

Began a Long Sentence.

Lansing, Kan., June 11.—Jessie Morrison arrived at the state penitentiary here and began serving her 25 years' sentence for killing Mrs. Olin Castle. She was assigned to the dressmaking department, but will be permitted to do fancy work until she shall have recovered her health. She was weak and nervous, but showed no signs of breaking down.

Guilty of Resisting Officers.

Charleston, W. Va., June 11.—Marion Marshall, who was tried in the federal court upon an indictment charging him with resisting officers at Atkinville last February, in the federal injunction cases, was found guilty.

Woman Attempts Suicide.

Urichsville, O., June 11.—Della Wilson, aged 21, shot herself in the head on account of a disagreement with her lover, it is said. She will recover.

Plans Approved.

Washington, June 11.—Secretary Moody approved the plans for the new three 13,000-ton battleships.

I WILL HAVE TO SERVE SENTENCE

Sentenced to Be Hanged on the First Trial, But Supreme Court Granted a New One.

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—James Wilcox, the murderer of Nellie Crosey, at Elizabeth City, will have to serve his sentence of 30 years in the state prison here. On his first trial he was sentenced to be hanged but the supreme court gave him a new trial because the spectators at the trial made a demonstration when Wilcox's lawyer arose to speak. On the second trial in a different county, he was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to serve 30 years in the penitentiary. This judgment the supreme court affirmed.

The defendant's attorney on the second appeal urged that most of the evidence was insufficient to have been submitted to the jury and that the suicide theory was as reasonable as any other one, maintaining that the deceased had the opportunity, the motive and the time to drown herself.

The supreme court, in its opinion, said that there were several serious difficulties in the way of endorsement of these views, the principal one being that Miss Crosey would have had to wade 75 feet from shore to reach water four feet deep. While her affections may have been trifled with, the court thought all the matters properly had been submitted to the jury and it could not say the jury's conclusions were incorrect.

WE MUST REPEAT

When Everybody in East Liverpool Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNeil pottery, resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediately relief and warded off the last attack."

STEBENVILLE PRIEST
MAY BE BISHOP

Three Candidates for the Honor Selected in the Diocese of Columbus.

Columbus, June 11.—At the meeting of the irremovable rectors of the diocese of Columbus, held at the East Broad street residence of Archbishop Henry Moeller, three candidates were selected by ballot, one of whom may be finally appointed by the pope to succeed to the bishopric of the diocese of Columbus, which was made vacant by the elevation of Archbishop Moeller to the coadjutorship of the arch-diocese of Cincinnati.

The bishops of the arch-diocese of Cincinnati will next hold a meeting to nominate three candidates for the office. They may or may not nominate the three chosen by the rectors. This list will also be sent to Rome. It is generally understood that the choice of the bishops will be the same as that of the priests, who made the following recommendations in the order given:

Very Rev. Father M. M. Mears, now pastor of the cathedral and chancellor of the diocese of Columbus.

Rev. James Hartley, now pastor of the leading Catholic church of Steubenville.

Rev. Francis W. Howard, now the assistant pastor of St. Joseph's cathedral, Columbus.

COAL RAILROAD TO HAMMONDSVILLE

Capitalists Looking Over a Proposed Route from Bergholz to That Town.

Toronto, June 11.—Oliver B. Roseberry, of Bergholz, a specialist in oil and coal lands, was here over night and left yesterday morning in company with other capitalists to look over the proposed new coal road projected between Bergholz and Hammondsville. About two-thirds of the right of way for this road has been secured. The line will open up some valuable coal territory in the northern part of the county.

The recent mining developments in Springfield township since the discovery of the vein of coal supposed to be known to geologists as vein No. 5, have been phenomenal. The plants at Wolf's run, near Bergholz, and at Amsterdam are model ones in every particular—equipped with electrical mining machinery and every modern appliance for mining. At Wolf's run the vein, which is over five feet thick and of superior quality, is reached at a depth of 85 feet, and at Amsterdam at 192 feet.

It is thought that this vein can be successfully operated at various points along the proposed line of road.

VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address

The action of the board of health in deciding to enforce the law providing for the inspection of meat and milk is one that will certainly meet with the approval of consumers of those important food products. Impure meat is probably seldom sold or eaten,
because it is an easy matter to discover whether it is tainted or not. But with milk it is different. Adulteration and impurities are not easily detected,
and physicians agree that much disease and suffering, particularly among children, is due to unwholesome milk.
There is no reason why East Liverpool, receiving its milk supply from adjacent farms and paying a high price for it, should not have the best.
Perhaps it does, but it will do no harm
to find out, and no dealer who desires to furnish an absolutely pure article
can object to a system of inspection.

mane society is still alive. One suit has been entered against a brutal driver for cruelty to horses, and many more similar actions ought to be brought. The case brought to light yesterday where a teamster is alleged to have beaten his horses with a base ball bat, though a particularly aggravated one, is but one instance of acts of cruelty calling for vigorous prosecution. Of course it is idle to expect to teach drivers to be humane, but a few strong fines will at least teach them to be cautious and to moderate their cruelty. The humane society should lose no time in getting down to business and doing its utmost to prevent practices which are a disgrace to a civilized community.

"The word of the next twenty years in the church," says Dr. Hillis, of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, "must be unity. Instead of 167 sects, the time has come for business men and missionary societies to acknowledge that the whole thing is shameful and the worst of mismanagement. In this country there have been re-duplications
of church plants until millions of money have been wasted."

Russia boasts that she is abundantly able to take care of the families of the murdered Jews at Kischineff.
Doubtless she it, but will she do it?
If Russia had exercised more care earlier she would not have brought upon

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.
"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Hubbard, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at other times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of "Lambert's Pain Balm" and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried,
in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

Lost Pins.

What becomes of pins?
It would really seem reflecting upon the daily disappearance of pins that the earth would be covered with them and that the annual fall if measured would amount to several inches. Women who start out with pins playing a useful part in the details of a gown will tell you that they never can find a pin; that they are always buying pins;
that they are eternally losing them.
In the dressmaker's rooms the expenditure for pins is no small item.
The average dressmaker uses and loses twelve papers of pins a month.
Yet the floors of her rooms are not matted with them, and frequently her wall goes up. "What has become of all the pins?" Where indeed do they go?
Is there a crust of pins subtly forming under the everyday sweep that will puzzle explorers in some far age to come?—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE ST. LOUIS FLOOD.

Eleven Lives Were Sacrificed.

Property Damaged Beyond Estimate.

RIVER RISES WITHOUT WARNING

Industry Paralyzed in East St. Louis—

The Vast Railroad Yards Outlined

By Half Submerged Cars and Locomotives.

St. Louis, June 11. — Almost two-thirds of East St. Louis, Ill., is under from 2 to 15 feet of water. Between sunset and dawn 11 lives were sacrificed to the waters, and damage which no man attempted to estimate, had been done to property.

Probably never before in the history of the country has a more valiant fight been made by brave men, with defeat staring them in the face to protect lives and property than has been made by the citizens of East St.
Louis. When the rising Mississippi began to threaten the city last Thursday morning Mayor Silas Cook ordered men to work to construct sand bag levees at once. The river rose higher and more men were employed. Citizens of the best classes worked side by side with the laborers. Since Thursday morning 5,000 men, under the leadership of Mayor Cook, without sleep, with little rest and food snatched at intervals, have toiled unceasingly to strengthen levees, and to destroy everything possible to save the city.
Not a wheel of industry is turning in East St. Louis. The smokeless chimneys of manufacturing plants stand lifeless, while the flood whirls at the foundations.

The vast railroad yards are outlined
by hundreds of half-submerged cars,
and here and there stand locomotives
only half visible.

Huge grain elevators stand surrounded by a veritable sea.

To the south beyond the railway yard, are thousands of homes, mainly humble cottages owned by laborers,
and containing their all, submerged to the eaves.

In northern East St. Louis the description is repeated, but not on so large a scale.

The business portion of the city and the district containing the better residences is still intact "but for how long?" is the question. Broadway, running from Eads bridge east to the city limits a wide street walled with stone 15 feet high, divides the city in halves. More than 10 feet of water is pressing against Broadway from the south end, and in some places is sweeping through in streams as thick as a man's body. If Broadway should break the water will rush over much of the city until Missouri avenue, running parallel one block north, is encountered.

Along the river front to the west a levee of sandbags from two to six feet high and two miles long, keeps the river out.

Without warning the river suddenly began to rise. The city was made safe along the river front but suddenly a new danger menaced. Word was received that the Illinois Central embankment skirting the river along the southern boundary of the city was threatening to give way. Cars were sent out on horseback and afoot
to shout warnings to the inhabitants of the southern half of the city. Carloads of sandbags were rushed to the place and work was hurriedly begun.
Accustomed to warnings of impending danger, the inhabitants did not leave their homes. Higher and higher crept the water until a thin stream began pouring over the embankment
and suddenly it broke.

News of the inundation excited the people of St. Louis early in the morning. Rumors of many deaths started thousands of sightseers across the Eads bridge. But the authorities prepared to turn back an influx of curious people. At both ends of the bridge ropes were stretched and police were stationed with orders to allow no ingress into the city of spectators who would only hinder the work of rescue.

East St. Louis was practically shut off from the world. Even refugees who wanted to go to St. Louis were stopped, and unless they could show that they were sure of being taken care of by friends they were turned back to the relief offered by the city.

Newspaper photographers and persons with small cameras were dealt with unceremoniously.

Riot guns were collected by Chief of Police Purdy and were given out to-night to guards to patrol the streets
where furniture is stacked, and to patrol the sandbag levees. Any thieves or possible levee cutters are to be shot down instantly. Martial law has not been proclaimed officially, but East St. Louis is practically being governed under such a condition during the flood and there is no place for idle
and curious persons.

WELLSVILLE

BRAKEMAN KILLED
IN CONWAY YARD

Charles Miskall, Who Boarded at Wellsville, Met Instant Death.

Charles Miskall, aged about 28 years and single, was killed instantly, or supposedly so, in Conway yards early yesterday morning. He left this city Tuesday afternoon on the sewer-pipe run. Just how the accident happened nobody seems to know. The horribly mangled body was found by the track by his fellow workmen and taken to undertaking rooms, where the remains were prepared for burial. The unfortunate young man had been on the road for some time, and while in Wellsville boarded with Mike Cusick, of the West End.

Mr. Miskall formerly lived at Ali-kanna, where the remains were taken for interment. He had quite a number of friends in this city and all most keenly feel his untimely departure.

MILLAGE AND ESTIMATES

Prepared By Wellsville Public Service Board—A Hot Discussion.

The board of public service held an all-day session yesterday. About the only real business transacted was the making out of a budget for the coming year's expenses, and this was the last thing done. The following is the budget itemized:

Street repair work, 1 5-10 mills, $3,000; street cleaning, 3-10 mill, $600; new work, 7-10 mill, $1,400; engineering department, 9-10 mill, $1,800; salaries and expenses of office, 7-10 mill, $1,300; poor, 2-10 mill, $400; city building and janitor's salary, 5-10 mill, $1,000; light, 3 mills, $6,000; sewers, 1-10 mill, $200; total mills 7 9-10; total tax, $15,800.

This budget will be submitted to council at the next regular meeting.

During the forenoon the removal of the office came up and a hot discussion ensued. Bowers wants to have the western end of the council chamber fitted up for an office and Stewart wants to move into the hose room. Both expressed themselves very freely. Mr. Herbert, the third member of the board, sided with Bowers and the clerk was instructed to see a carpenter and ascertain whether it would be possible without great expense to have sufficient light in the western end of the council room.

Frank Davis, formerly second engineer at the pump house, came before the board and said he had not been treated fairly while employed at the pumping station. He said he was required to work the night turn and was compelled to do all the repair work. Supt. Ewing was present and showed Mr. Davis where he was mistaken and also that he had been dealt with as properly as the rest. Mr. Ewing said he offered to let Davis work one week at night, then the next day, but Davis refused this. After discussing the matter for about half an hour and both men's temper getting hot, it ended by Davis taking his hat and leaving the room. This little affair closed the meeting.

HORRORS OF THE FLOOD

A Resident of That City Graphically Portrays Conditions at St. Louis.

John Donaghy arrived in town Tuesday evening from St. Louis, his home. He has been kept busy since his arrival relating tales of the horrors caused by the flood. He said the grounds where the great world's fair would be held next year are not and will not be damaged at all, as they are far above the water line. He said where the greatest misery and suffering is being caused is in East St. Louis, the city being submerged in about eight feet of water.

The water when he left the city was at the greatest height it had ever reached, something over 39 feet. This is two feet higher than ever before. All day long people whose homes have been destroyed by the water are taken to a place where shelter and food are provided. The loss of life is something terrible. The dead are taken to the morgue and if not claimed go to a nameless grave.

He related a peculiar incident of which he was an eye witness. A chicken had floated down the river and was caught under a bridge where it perched on some lumber. A negro on the bridge, 60 feet above, determined to capture the fowl. He put some corn in a basket, then lowered it on a rope beside the chicken. Then he waited for at least two hours for a "bite." At last the chicken hopped into the basket and was slowly drawn up.

Mr. Donaghy, with several other friends was on the bridge on a train, and the negro was on the vehicle road above. When the basket came up to them, one of the men reached out, caught the rope and captured the chicken. The negro was the maddest man in St. Louis.

Mr. Donaghy left St. Louis just in time, as the night he left every bridge out of the city was condemned. It was necessary for the train on which he rode to go through several feet of water for about 12 miles.

Explosion Caused Fire.

A fire started in an out house adjoining the house owned and occupied by Mrs. Nancy Wilson, Seventh and Broadway, yesterday afternoon. It was caused by the explosion of a plumber's furnace. The plumber left the place and left the furnace, which is heated by gasoline, burning. During his absence it exploded. The local fire department was called out, but before it arrived the flames were extinguished. George Culnon, who resides at the house, piled the out-house from the main building before the flames got any headway. Damage about $25.

Candidates for Police

The Wellsville board of public safety held a short meeting in the mayor's office last evening. Mayor Fogo submitted the following names for members of the city police force: Fred Houser, chief; William Elliott, McIlvane, John Henthorn and William Canaday. They were approved. The city is entitled to six and another officer will be appointed later. This beat was made vacant by the resignation of Harry Snider. The chief will be required to give a $500 bond and each of the officers a bond of $250.

Carr's Son Runs Away.

Patrolman Moore, of the C. & P. railroad, while at the Wellsville depot yesterday morning, noticed a young lad looking nervously around him. Mr. Moore went up to the lad and inquired why he was there. The boy said he had run away from home. He gave his name as Carr and said he was the son of the man arrested in Chester. The boy was taken to the city jail to appear before Mayor Fogo. He said he thought he was 13 years old, but that he might be only 6. He said he was born in 1883. He looks to be about 17 years old.

Ground Hog in His Garden.

Blacksmith Matt De Temple is very much elated over his success as a marksman. In the rear of his lot he has a fine little garden and for some time has been bothered with something nipping different things. Yesterday morning he caught a glimpse of the intruder and went to the house and secured a rifle and slyly crept within range and blazed away. After the smoke had rolled away he investigated his prize and found he had shot a ground hog.

Ejected and Arrested.

John Canaday and a man named Bert, of East Liverpool, were arrested in Wellsville this morning for creating a disturbance on a street car. The conductor gave them back their money and told them to get off. They refused. The conductor then tried to put them off, but could not. Officer Canaday and Constable Thorne were on the car and they came forward, ejected the disturbers and put them in jail.

BOARD OF HEALTH
WANTS REFORMS

ing of council relative to the disposal of garbage was considered at length. The board has already made a provision as to how it shall be removed, but it has no right to make any contracts for its removal. There is a rule making it necessary for any person removing garbage to have a wagon that will not leak or barrels that will not permit the filth to escape onto the streets while being conveyed through the city. All such conveyances must be securely covered. Mr. Burgess stated that any violation to the rule can be brought before the board and a severe penalty can be imposed. It was recommended that the council or the board of public service make a contract to have the garbage removed according to the rules of the board. It is probable that council will take the matter up at the next meeting.

The code says that council is authorized to contract, for a period not exceeding five years, for the collection and removal and disposal of such garbage, night soil, dead animals, and other solid waste matter at the expense of the municipality or at the expense of persons responsible for the existence of such waste substance. Mr. Burgess stated that numerous vaults are being dug in the city and asked the board to consider the law regulating them. It was discovered that a vault can be dug only after a permit has been granted by the board or health and that any person violating the law in any manner is subject to a severe penalty. It was decided to ask the fire department to go to the West End and distinguish the fire that has been burning on the Aten tract for several days. It seems that some one fired a pile of garbage and that it has been causing a very disagreeable stench.

Mr. Haines was unanimously elected president pro tem of the board, after which the body adjourned to meet next week.

An Ancient Tragedy.

A historical paper in Lord Montagu's collection in London tells of a strange tragedy "done in Holborn, a little before Christmas," several centuries ago. "A boy seven years old came up into a gentleman's chamber and prattled to him and drew his sword and flourished with it. The gentleman being in bed, wondered to see the boy toss his blade so and said: 'So, good boy, thou hast done well. Put in the sword.' The boy persisting, the gentleman rose and held him the scabbard, and the rude handed lad, thinking to sheath the sword, lustily chortled it into his belly. Company were called. One offered to strike the child. 'Let him alone,' quoth the gentleman. 'God is just. This boy's father did I kill five years since and none knew. Now he hath revenged it.' And the gentleman died the second dressing."

Tones and Strengthens Every Weak Organ and Invigorates the Whole System.

Paine's Celery Compound has been specially prepared for the relief and cure of the many ailments that afflict women, and it never fails to give a new and healthy tone to the female organs; it removes relaxed debility and unhealthy secretions; it purifies the blood and establishes a perfect and vigorous health.

Mrs. V. L. Brown, Vineland, Cal., writes as follows: "Four years ago

female troubles and irregularities commenced to make my life miserable. Though I sought the best medical advice, my sufferings seemed to increase, and recently, upon the advice of a friend, I used Paine's Celery Compound, and found it to be a wonder-working compound. MARSH HOBBS WORSE

Victim of the New Cumberland Shooting Affray in a Serious Condition.

Marshall Hobbs, of New Cumberland, who was shot by Samuel West some time ago, is reported in a critical condition at the home of his uncle, Randolph Hobbs, near New Cumberland. The bullet, which lodged just below his heart, has never been removed.

Hobbs was taken care of at the Gill hospital in Steubenville until it was thought that he would recover and he was then taken to the home of his uncle. During the past few days Hobbs has been gradually getting worse again and now he is sinking rapidly and there are but small hopes for his recovery. West will have a hearing before the circuit court some time this month.

THE GRAND DUCHESS

Popular Opera Presented for the First Time at Rock Springs Park Theater Today.

The Central Opera company has been carefully preparing a new piece for the patrons of the Rock Springs summer theater, and it was presented for the first time this afternoon. The title is "The Grand Duchess," and the company is especially adapted to the production. Manager Strauss has watched the rehearsals during the week and has expressed his entire satisfaction with the piece.

In "The Grand Duchess" the Central Opera company has been properly placed and the production will be sure to please the East Liverpool lovers of music. The cast for the new opera is as follows:

Grand Duchess, Miss Lillian Taylor; Wanda, a peasant girl, Miss Halie White; Frits, D. McCaffrey; General Baum, W. H. White; Baron Puck, O. Meyer; Prince Paul, Miss Helen Clare; Nopomuck Sergeant, Will Sibley; Olga, Polly Allison.

COMPLAINT IS MADE

Of the Actions of Certain Pottery Employees, Who Will Be Brought to Account.

Complaint will likely be made to the Chester authorities in a day or two with reference to the actions of a certain crew of clay workers employed in a Southside pottery.

These men have been annoying certain residents of the town as they passed the shop, and the practice has become so common that steps will be taken to stop it. One of the victims is a well known and much beloved clergyman, and members of his congregation are determined to punish the guilty parties. No more contemptible tricks could be imagined, and the repeated applications of citizens to the firm to have a stop put to it having failed, they have resolved to take the matter into their own hands.

WELLSBURG PYTHIANS

Have a Crowd of About 500 at Their Picnic at Rock Springs Park.

About 500 of Wellsburg's best citizens are picnicking today at Rock Springs, and in spite of the very bad weather are enjoying the day. The excursion was held under the auspices of the K. of P. lodge of Wellsburg, and owing to a misunderstanding with the railroad authorities the attendance is not as large by half as it would have been.

A large number of the visitors attended the matinee during the afternoon, and with the base ball game and the several other amusements the park provides the crowd was enabled to enjoy the outing.

STREETS TO BE CLEANED

Steps Taken for Work Which is Greatly Needed in Chester.

Pursuant to the order of council at its last meeting, Commissioner Rose and Engineer Kelly, of Chester, have ascertained that it is the duty of Contractor Freshwater to clean the streets, and steps were taken yesterday to have the work done at once.

The streets have been in an abominable condition during the winter, and when warm weather came on and the mud gave way to dust, the condition was no less objectionable. Commissioner Rose asked for instructions at the last meeting of council and was told to look up the contract with Mr. Freshwater. This was done and the contractor has concluded to do the work. The improvement will be greatly appreciated by the residents of the paved streets.

SMART MILLINERY.

Becoming Shapes For Dressy and Ordinary Wear.

The new hat shapes are decidedly becoming and artistic. The chief characteristic consists in a clinging effect in the back and a shovel effect in front. Hats entirely composed of flowers have upturned brims and for sole trimming a big bow of velvet.

The flat egret is one of the most popular trimmings. It is placed at the BLACK STRAW AND OSTRICH TIPS, left side of a rough straw turban in such a manner that it projects slightly in advance of the hat.

Double faced hats, the upper part being white and the under black, are very becoming and smart.

Shapes of black chiffon trimmed with a single ostrich feather are both becoming and useful.

Hydrangeas and jonquils are among the novelties in artificial flowers.

In general the trimmings may be said to be, if anything, flatter than ever, but the outlines of the hat are more raised.

The tailor made hat of the season is much more becoming than formerly, for instead of the universal sailor shape an unusual variety of modes are shown, all of them with rolling or irregular brims and flat or round crowns. With an aigret or a smart bow of ribbon, the trimming is complete, and this can easily be contrived by the woman with a little skill in her fingers.

Nearly all the hat shapes this year have flat tops and very rolling brims. The illustration shows a smart hat of coarse black straw trimmed with two black ostrich feathers.

Secret For Secret.

In the days of Louis XIV. even warriors banded epigrams with one another.

The Marechal de Grammont had taken a fortress by siege.

"I will tell you a secret," said its military governor after surrendering. "The reason of my capitulation was that I had no more powder."

"And, secret for secret," returned the marechal snuvely, "the reason of my accepting it on such easy terms was that I had no more balls."

Wanted Something Effective. Under a "sketchy little thing" exhibited by Jones there hangs a printed card which bears the words:

"Do not touch with canes or umbrellas."

An appreciative small boy added the following postscript: "Take A Ax."—London Tit-Bits.

REALM OF SPORTS

NARROWLY ESCAPED MOB VENGEANCE

Williams, Burly Catcher For Giants, Excites Fans by His Acts.

HE THREW MOST VICIOUSLY

At Umpire Stillwell Because of a Decision He Thought Unfair And the Crowd Was Closing on Him When Police Interfered—Score, 6 to 4.

By the skin of their teeth the Cuban X Giants won the game from Captain Reark's aggregation yesterday afternoon in the West End park. The fans, numbering fully 500, fled into the park expecting to witness a one-sided affair and were happily surprised when the locals got down to real work and showed the boys of color that they were not playing Wellsville.

But for one feature, almost too disgraceful and low to permit mention, the contest would have gone down on record as being the best of the season and among the best ever witnessed in the park. To Williams, a big burly negro of the first water, so black that ink would appear the color of a bright, new wedding dress along side, is due the credit for the dirty and contemptible portion of the game. That he escaped mob vengeance was due only to the self-respect held by the spectators, none of whom would lay a hand on him. In the history of the game in this city no man ever acted so much like a barbarian.

It was during the most exciting period of the game. The locals had not scored a run until this time. They had not even reached third base for seven long innings. Reark got first on an error made by Williams and Emmerling got a base on an error by Grant, who tried to intercept Reark. Miller stepped forth and smashed the ball far out into left field. He made three bases on it and scored Reark and Emmerling. He then began playing a pace off the bag and when Gibson knocked one down to the pitcher, he rushed in—safe as any man ever scored a run.

"Bully" Williams had received the ball from the pitcher and was so angered when Umpire Stillwell called Miller safe that he drew back and threw the ball as hard as he could directly at Stillwell, who was standing to the right of the pitcher's box. Stillwell had a ball in his hand at the time and attempted to strike back, but was unable to land—much to the disappointment of the spectators.

Hardly had Williams let go of the ball until every fan in the park went wild. They shouted: "Kill the brute! String him up! Knock his head off!" and many other forcible epithets. At the critical time Officers Aufderheide, Saulsbury and Morris protected the fellow.

After such a diversion the visiting bunch were strictly in the air and Gibson had no trouble in scoring another run. The confusion did not last long, however, and the next three went out without reaching third. The score at this interval stood as it did when the game was finished. And although the locals made a strenuous effort in the ninth to make just two more runs they could not force their luck.

The Giants started off by scoring two in the first, but neither run was earned. A couple of bad throws did the work. In the second and third innings the results were the same, but in the fourth, fifth and sixth they piled up four more runs by some hard punching and expert base running.

Notwithstanding that the visitors hit him rather freely, Miller played a hard game and was most satisfactory to everyone. He was a little wild, but did great work against such strong people and he did enough to make himself good with the fans when he pounded one for three bases and scored the first runs.

The captain of the Giants said that Brown was one of the best men he has seen this season. He would like to see him have a chance with a faster aggregation. With the fans he is strong and will remain so as long as he remains in the city.

Wallace made a pretty hit, but at the wrong time. Lawrence made a great catch in right, and in fact every one on the local team played the game right up to snuff.

HOUSEWIVES HEADACHES

You don't know why you suffer from headache and you are apt to believe you have some dire female trouble, but its dollars to doughnuts that you are wrong. Women are prone to put off the duties of Nature to attend to the duties of the home and when they do get time to go, the feeling has passed.

Constipation results and then the awful racking headache. Take a spoonful of every night before going to bed. Keep it up for a few weeks.

A. F. Klop, of Troy, Ohio, writes: "I have been a sufferer from headache for three or four years with constipation and Sick Headache, and we received almost instant relief by taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The use of several bottles restored our digestive organs to normal condition, and although we are free from any gastric trouble, we do not consider being without a bottle for a minute."

A REMARKABLE GAME IN MANY RESPECTS

THE PRESS TEAM DOWNED THE STREET RAILWAY MEN.

Score Was 13 to 10—Extraordinary Pitching Only Matched By the Batting And Fielding.

The shades of Ben Franklin and Horace Greeley no doubt assumed a pleased expression yesterday afternoon when Old Sol, just cuddling into his nest for the night, beamed down upon the victorious press team as it was leaving Rock Springs park. While some of the members of the two teams have not yet realized that the contest is now a thing of the past, it

HANDICAPPED.

The man who started to run a race in chains and fetters would be visibly handicapped. No one would expect him to succeed. The man who runs the race of life when his digestive and nutritive organs are diseased is equally handicapped.

In the one case his strength is over-weighed, in the other it is under-weighed. Success demands above all else a sound stomach.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When this is done food is perfectly digested and assimilated and the body receives strength in the only way in which strength can be given—by the nutrition derived from digested and assimilated food.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Amrose, Esq., of 1205 W. 11th St., Minneapolis, Minn. "I was taken with what our physicians here and was indignant. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a question blank to fill out, and I did so and you advised me to use your Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped, being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent free on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing, or twenty-one one-cent stamps, for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

can be officially announced that the score was 13 to 10 in favor of the pencil pushers.

If the statements of the victors can be believed the "no pusher, no puller" men were not in it at any stage of the game, but according to the unprejudiced spectators they played an article of ball that would entitle them to win many a game, and had they started to land as they slung artist, the result might have been different.

On the other hand the disciples of Ben Franklin claim that the seven scored by them in the first two innings looked so good that the only such rolled them up any old way, just to give his support a chance. Such pitched a gilt edge game, in spite of the fact that the hits of his opponents run into double figures. He was master of the situation all the way through and his record of nine strikeouts in seven innings would bring pleasant recollections to the "only" Christy Matthewson. Such only pitched hard enough to win. The hit column of the fare takers would have been decidedly slim had he let out a few kinks in his arm and had his outfield captured some of the easy scrapers that looked like getting money from home, for his outfield.

The way Harvey Allison slugged the ball ought to make Beaumont feel like a thin dime, and why he was placed at the tail end of the batting order will probably always be a mystery. He was four times at the bat and after one failure landed on the ball three times in succession for three base hits. Another mistake in judgment on the part of the street car men was their selection of a slab artist, Crawford, who started in to do the twirling, was touched up for 10 of the 14 hits and 11 of the 13 runs. Toland, who was substituted in the fourth, had five strike outs and held them down to four aces and two runs.

One of the features of the game was the daring base running of "Peg Leg" McConnell, who, in spite of his crippled condition made third base after being hit by the ball. The rooting of Tiddler Irwin was another feature. Count Heinrich de Bullock had his batting eye, but could not get around as far as the home plate. Harris had a one spot in every column except the assists. Martindale, the backstop from the cranberry marshes of Medina county, pulled down several difficult high balls.

J. Allison didn't have much to look after in middle garden, but he captured the only fly that came his way. Jackman, like Harris, had a sequence of ones, until the assist column was reached. Byers, of the hill line, was there with his bat, and Wade hit 'em a few himself. Barnett, behind the bat, had more putouts than the first baseman, and made two pretty catches of foul flies.

The Lineup for Today.

As the result of yesterday's most interesting game an immense crowd is expected to witness the contest today. The following lineups will wage the battle:

Y. M. C. A.—Gibson, short; Youngson, third; Wallace, first; Brown, second; Lawrence, right; Harker, left; Reark, middle; Emmerling, catcher; Winters, pitcher.

League Officials to Meet.

The officials of the Crockery City league and the managers of the clubs that compose it will meet tonight at city hall at 7:30 o'clock sharp. A schedule of games for the remainder of the season and rules governing the teams have been prepared and will be presented for ratification. Precaution will be taken to prevent the players jumping from one club to another, and the games will be conducted along practically the same lines as the big leagues. All interested are requested to be present.

Wellsville vs. Salineville.

The Wellsville base ball team left this morning for Salineville, where they will play the team of that town. The boys of Salineville missed many a meal to practice the national game and will give the boys from here a tight battle. Quite a crowd of rooters went with the team and as they go to make up a large part of a team the victory is assured.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Andrew Duffy is organizing a base ball team at Toronto.

Baltimore has released "Steve" Brodie for the seventh time.

Tommy Feltz offers Harry Forbes, the Chicago bantam, $500 to sign articles of a battle for the championship in his class.

It is said Taylor, Chicago's winning pitcher, got his curve ideas on the top of freight trains. He used to stand on the rear car and play catch with the fireman while rounding curves.

BRILLIANT WEDDING

The Hanna-McCormick Nuptials Most Elaborate Cleveland Has Known.

THE PRESIDENT WAS A GUEST

After the Wedding Breakfast Mr.
and Mrs. McCormick Left for a Trip to Monticello, Ill.—To Reside in Chicago.

Cleveland, June 11.—Without exception the Hanna-McCormick nuptials,
at which Miss Ruth Hanna, the youngest daughter of Senator Hanna and Mrs. Marcus A. Hanna, became the wife of Joseph Medill McCormick, of Chicago, was one of the most brilliant social events the Forest City has ever known. The wedding was solemnized at high noon at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The officiating clergymen were Bishop W. A. Leonard and his assistants, the Rev. Mr. Billings, of Groton, Mass.; Dr. George H. Mc
Grew and the Rev. William H. Jones, of St. John's church. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast
at Glenmere, the beautiful Hanna home in Lake avenue. Among the distinguished guests were President Roosevelt and his daughter, Miss Allice, who arrived in town at 5:30 a. m.
After the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Cormick left for their wedding trip to Monticello, Ill. They will be at home in Chicago in the fall.

Precisely at noon the bridal party entered and passed down to the altar.
The ushers preceded the maids. They were Howard M. Hanna, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride; Joseph M. Patterson, of Chicago, a cousin of the groom; Robert Allerton, of Chicago; J. W. Beck, of Chicago; Ernest Minor, of Cincinnati; James Barnes of New York; William Williams, of Philadelphia; Malcolm McBride, of Cleveland. The maids approached the altar two by two, Miss Florence Cobb
and Miss Mary Hopkins, of Washington, leading. Following were Miss Claire Hanna, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride, with Miss Adelaide Hamilton, of Chicago; Miss Virginia Johnston, of Pittsburgh, with Miss Frances Lewis, of Portland, Ore.; Miss Laura McKinley, of Pittsburgh, with Miss Eleanor Patterson, of Chicago, a coun-sin of the groom. The maid of honor was Miss Lucia McCurdy, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride.

The newly wedded couple outwitted
their friends in a clever way. Mr.
McCormick had been informed that his friends who attended Harvard university with him and who were present at the wedding had planned to play some tricks on him and his bride. As a result Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Cormick left the Hanna home about 4:30 o'clock in a carriage. The groom's college friends followed in a carriage,
but after going a short distance Mr.
and Mrs. McCormick left their carriage and got into an automobile, which was in waiting for them. The automobile was turned loose and the college boys were soon lost. The couple reached Berea, where they boarded a Lake Shore train, and are now en route to Monticello.

RETURNS FROM THE WEDDING

Thanks Cleveland's Chief of Police for Precautions Taken for His Safety.

Cleveland, June 11.—The President,
Miss Roosevelt, Commander Cowley,
U. S. A., and Secretary Loeb left for Washington in a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad at 11 o'clock. The train is due in Washington at 2 o'clock. The evening was spent at the home of Senator Hanna.
There was a good sized crowd at the station to wave the President farewell and he responded to the greetings by hitting his hat and bowing.

The remaining guests at the wedding from Washington will leave at their convenience. Many of the Chicago visitors left for the west a few minutes after 11 o'clock.

The precautions taken for the President's safety while in the city were under the personal charge of Chief of Police Frederick Kohler. So efficient was this service and so carefully was the chief executive guarded
from possible harm that personal appreciation was expressed by him to Chief Kohler immediately prior to the departure of the train for Washington.

Offers of Relief Declined.

Washington, June 11.—Numerous offers have reached the Russian government from American sources to aid
the families of sufferers in the recent Kishinev incident. All such offers have been declined for the reason that Russia is entirely capable of extending relief, and under the circumstances cannot accept outside aid.

Yellowstone Park Visitors Instructed.

Washington, June 11.—Secretary Hitchcock has issued a new series of instructions to persons traveling through Yellowstone Park. The most notable of the new regulations prohibits all molestation or interference,
by feeding or otherwise, with bears
and other wild animals in the park.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Permanently Cured Me.

"A year ago I suffered from extreme nervous stomach trouble. I was afraid of everything, could not hear or see, and was nearly driven to the verge of insanity. I had no sleep and could hardly lie down. I was nearly crazy. I began to take Dr. Miles' Nervine. I have taken it all twelve bottles and consider myself permanently cured. My home doctor has since remarked on my healthy appearance and said he wished he could say his medicine helped me. He knows it was Dr. Miles' Nervine. We are never without the Anti-Pain Pills and consider your medicines household remedies. I cannot say enough for the Nervine, because in addition to my own case my daughter, who was out of school for a long time because of St. Vitus' dance, was completely cured by eight bottles. She is now feeling fine and going to school every day. We thank you for your kindness and will never stop singing the praises of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine."—Mrs. C. E. King, Lima, O.

LOCKOUT STILL IN FULL FORCE

Eighty-five Hundred Men in Pittsburgh
in Idleness—Employers Stand Firm.

Pittsburgh, June 11.—The situation in the lockout by the contractors of Pittsburgh against the stonemasons' and bricklayers' unions is becoming quite serious, and judging from the determined attitude of the builders,
it is apparent that nothing short of a complete settlement of the existing labor warfare will end the lockout.
About 8,500 men are locked out.

The Master Builders' association met and decided that the exigencies of the situation rendered it an opportune time for the formation of an international association of builders. To further this end a convention of delegates from builders organizations in various parts of the United States will be held in the Hotel Henry the week beginning June 22. The object of the organization will be to oppose all unjust demands by labor unions and to settle all disputes arising between employer and employee. It is estimated that contracts amounting to at least $10,000,000 will be affected by the lockout and that the wage earners will lose about $25,000 a day.

Verdict of Not Guilty.

Columbus, June 11.—A jury in the United States court brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of Ivor Hutches, a Columbus attorney, charged with using the mails with intent to defraud. The indictment against him arose out of his connection with the divorce suit of John P. Miller against Mrs. Annie T. Miller, both of whom are now serving sentences in the penitentiary, having been found guilty on similar charges.

Burial of the Liban's Dead.

Marselles, June 11.—A public funeral of 15 of the victims of the wreck of the French steamer Liban Sunday was held. Every honor possible was shown the dead. Flags were at half mast, while thousands of citizens walked through the streets after the cortege with heads bared. All the municipal officers attended the funeral.

Military Operations Concluded.

Paris, June 11.—The operations of the French military expedition to Morocco were practically concluded,
when word was received at Beni-Oun-if, Algeria, that the head men of the seven villages composing the Figuig
oasis had made full submission.

WOMAN SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Great Excitement Has Been Aroused
The Police Are Seeking
for Harry Artis.

Uniontown, Pa., June 11.—Great excitement has been aroused by developments which seem to point to a heinous attempt to murder Mrs. Chas.
Ingles, of this city. Some time ago
she was shot from ambush and seriously wounded, and Harry Artis, of Fairchance, was brought before a justice in the case, but Mrs. Ingles did not appear against him.

It is now charged that a few days ago, Artis talked with two colored men, H. O. Grady and Thomas Walker, offering them a gold watch and $50 to kill Mrs. Ingles and providing them with an ironwood stick for the purpose. Artis is alleged to have said to the negroes, "You will know her, as she lumps. I shot her once, and intended to kill her, but I shot too low." The negroes have turned the gold watch and the club over to County Defective McBeth and told the story as above related. There is a warrant out for the arrest of Artis, who has disappeared.

Secretary Root at West Point.

West Point, N. Y., June 11.—Secretary of War Root arrived here and will deliver the diplomas to the graduating class of the military academy.
He witnessed the first class participate in its last dress parade and afterwards listened to the address of Col.
Treat, commandant of cadets, who welcomed the graduates as commissioned officers of the army. Lieutenant General Miles was also present at the ceremonies. The graduating hop at Memorial hall was, in point of attendance the largest and also the most brilliant within the history of the academy.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

Harrisburg, June 11.—Thomas Powell, a negro aged 25 years, committed suicide, after shooting and seriously wounding Bessie Keese, a white girl, aged 19 years. The Keese girl formerly lived in Marietta, where she became acquainted with Powell, who came to Harrisburg with her recently.
Powell called at the place where the girl was working, and it is alleged,
they quarreled because she told him
he must stay away from her. He left, threatening to kill her, and returned
some time afterward and shot her.

BE YOUR OWN JUDGE

Mio-na Costs You Nothing if It Does
Not Cure, Says Druggist
Will Reed.

Mio-na, the remarkable flesh-forming food and cure for dyspepsia, has won fame by the unusual way in which it is sold. It is the only remedy offered for the cure of dyspepsia which costs the user absolutely nothing unless it cures.

Will Reed, the popular druggist, is selling a great many packages of Miona, and with every box is given his personal guarantee to refund the money
if Mio-na does not give satisfaction. You to be your own judge as to whether the remedy helps or not.

Mio-na is an unusual combination.
It is a flesh-forming food, combined with agents that regulate the digestive organs and remove irritation, congestion and inflammation from the stomach, liver and intestines. It enables those organs to extract from the food
all that goes to make good, rich blood, firm muscle, steady nerves and a sound body. It does not contain any poison, pancreatin or other drugs, that never effect a cure and rarely gives temporary relief.

Mio-na puts the digestive system in-
to proper working order, gives health, strength and good flesh, and is the only natural cure for indigestion.
Even in chronic cases, where life is one long, drawn out pain, this remedy will effect a cure. It is the simplest and most reliable of all remedies.
Just one small tablet before or after meals and you can eat a hearty meal
with no distress.

If Mio-na does not do all that is claimed for it, Druggist Will Reed will cheerfully return your money.

New Model Field Gun for Militia.

Washington, June 11.—General Crozier, with the approval of Acting Secretary Sanger, is making preparations to supply the militia of the several states with the new model field gun
and other artillery equipments in accordance with appropriations made for that purpose in the last Congress.
These guns will be of the latest model and the same as those supplied to the regular artillery of the army. It is expected that eventually $1,000,000 will be expended for artillery for the militia.

Killed By Lightning.

West Chester, Pa., June 11.—Sharp-less Baker, a farmer, who occupied the farm of Thomas Brown, a short distance south of this place, was instantaneously killed by lightning. During the heaviest portion of the storm Baker started across a field, carrying an umbrella with a metal handle. A bolt struck it and the current passed through his body. He was dead when picked up.

Bright's Disease And Diabetes

Announcement of the Discovery of the Cure.

The stockholders of the Jno. J. Fulton Co.
of San Francisco, announce to the world the discovery of Chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes based on hundreds of cures and two years of demonstration disclosing about 87%
of recoveries. In attestation of these momentous facts we present the names of some of the stockholders, business and professional men of this city, every one of whom had to have previous opinions reversed and be satisfied of the goodness of the discovery before investing in this corporation, viz: Hon. Barclay Hooley, Attorney and ex-member of Congress; Thos.
Kirkpatrick, capitalist; Hon. D. M. Burns, President Candelaria Mining Co.; A. E. Shattuck, President Pacific States Type Foundry; Edward Mills, President Bullock & Jones Co.;
Capt. Roberts, President Sacramento Transportation Co.; D. E. Bender, capitalist; Wm.

Ins. Co.; R. D. Sessions, Attorney So. Pac. R.
Co.; Judge Bigelow, ex-Supreme Judge State
of Nevada; Col. D. B. Fairbanks, Cashier Petaluma Savings Bank; and many others.

The list of the cured runs into hundreds and includes druggists and physicians. The 15% of failures was largely among cases that were at death's door and many such recovered.

SOCIAL EVENTS

PLEASANT PARTY

Given By Miss Ruby A. Wase on the Occasion of Her Birthday.

The entertainment given last evening by Miss Ruby Alice Wase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wase, was one of the most enjoyable social functions given in the younger circles in this city in some time. Miss Wase received the congratulations of her friends upon her fourteenth anniversary.

The home of the hostess on Spring street presented a pretty appearance, being decorated in pink and green in various designs. The hours from 7:30 to 10:30 were made most enjoyable with games. At a late hour a luncheon was served.

Stuttler-Colley.

A very pretty wedding occurred this morning at 10 o'clock in the Hotel Grand building. The parties married were J. W. Colley, a C. & P. brakeman, of Salineville, and Miss Carrie Stuttler, of this city. Squire H. P. McCarron performed the ceremony and he states that it has not been his pleasure for a long time to unite such a fine looking couple. They left on the noon train for a honeymoon and will upon their return go to house-keeping in Salineville.

Given a Surprise Party.

Two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Dechant have returned from Columbus, where they have been attending school. They will remain for several weeks. A surprise party was given at the home and a very enjoyable season spent by the friends and relatives who attended.

Mission Society Meeting.

The Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church will hold an important meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church. It is the occasion of the annual mite box opening. All members who find it impossible to be present are requested to send their mite boxes.

HOME AFFAIRS

Taken to Salineville—The remains of Enoch Jones, who died at his home on Pleasant Heights yesterday, were taken to Salineville this morning, where the funeral was held this afternoon. Rev. J. W. Gorrell, pastor of the First Christian church, officiated, and the interment was made in the Salineville cemetery.

Arrested for Loitering—Mrs. Joe McKee and an unknown girl were arrested this morning by Chief Wyman and Officer Aufderheide on a charge of loitering. They were taken before the mayor, who gave them ten minutes in which to leave the city. Mrs. McKee is the young girl, arrested two weeks ago by Officer Saulsbury, but who was released the day following, her husband appearing and paying her fine.

Change in Pay Day—The C. & P. division of the Pennsylvania company will in the future pay its hands on the 15th of each month instead of the 6th as heretofore. The employees making their headquarters in Cleveland have objected to the change, and there may be trouble over the question. Agent Wassman, of the local office, stated this morning there would be no trouble over the change in East Liverpool.

Notice to Dippers.

There will be a special meeting of Local No. 18 Friday evening. All dippers please attend.

Our Jockeys In France.

Rigby, Thompson, O'Connor, McGinn and other American jockeys are again riding in their old form in France, and there are as yet no scandals in connection with the turf. Paris tradesmen are indignant against society giving encouragement to authorities in fixing the date of the Grand Prix in Paris for June 7.

They declare that Americans, English and their rich French patrons date their departure from Paris by this event, which should have been fixed at least a week later, the difference meaning an enormous loss to trade.

Rube Is Captain of a Minor Team.

Amos Rube, once one of the most famous of the National league ball pitchers, but for some reason out of the game, has re-entered the game this season in a small way. He has signed a contract to play first base and pitch for the team at Vincennes, Ind., and he will also captain the team. He is in good condition, and it is believed by many that he hopes to get back into the game in one of the big leagues.

Rube Is In Fine Shape.

Rube Waddell is apparently going to be just the same great pitcher and just the same remarkable diamond character this year as in seasons past.

LOGSTOWN.

Modern Industry Displaces Famous Old Landmark.

Time soon effaces the works of previous generations. Especially is this so when the demands of the white man's business life decree that the old and the historic shall give way before the new and the useful. Recently the steel trust bought from the Economites their valuable lands at Economy, Pa., on the north bank of the Ohio river between Pittsburgh and Beaver. On this land are to be erected enormous steel works, and a new city is to spring up, to be called Ambridge. This will be wiped out the quaint old communistic town of Economy, which in turn had usurped the place of Logstown. This former place was a town of great importance in the old days prior to the French and Indian war. It was a center used by the French in their dealings with the Indians, and was located on the Economy lands a short distance down the river bank from the town of Economy. It may have had as many as two score wooden cabins with chimneys in the days of its prime. Here came Washington in 1753 when on his way as ambassador to the French.

The first definite knowledge we have of Logstown is in the journal of Conrad Weiser, who, on Aug. 27, 1748, arrived there on an important mission to the Ohio Indians. He saluted the town, and says that the salute was returned by about 100 guns. Colonel George Croghan visited the place Dec. 16, 1750. French agents were also busy all this time at Logstown. In 1751 Colonel was there. In 1751 Joncaire held a council of all the Indians in the town. This French officer was one of the most able of diplomats in dealing with the Indians, but all his fine art would not win his way with the Logstown chiefs, who returned to him his speechless. Logstown was the scene of an important treaty made with the Indians by Colonel Croghan on May 28, 1751. Washington's visit to this famous old town was made on Nov. 25, 1753. There he remained for several days while finishing his plans for the long trip to the French posts at Venango and Le Boeuf. This was about the time of Logstown's greatest glory. The next year Fort Duquesne was built on the present site of Pittsburgh, and Logstown began to decline. Its importance as a trading center vanished, and its many houses fell into decay. Then came the French war, with its rapid series of epoch-making calamities, which drove out the French and installed the English power. So rapid was the decay of Logstown that early in the last century its very site was the subject of a long controversy among historians. Today, however, that question is settled. The ancient site of Logstown will soon be the scene of almost unparalleled industry. Where once was the log cabin metropolis of eighteenth century Indian trade is now arising, as if by magic, the twentieth century city of American manufacture. But the new city will never be as picturesque as the old town, for grimy workmen will take the places once occupied by Frenchmen and Indians.

THE GREAT DROUGHT OF 1845.

Not General, Confined to Southern Shore of Lake Erie.

There are yet living some few persons in Northern Ohio who have a personal recollection of the famous and destructive dry summer of 1845. This drought was not general, but prevailed throughout a fated strip of country lying along the southern shore of Lake Erie for over a hundred miles, and being about sixty miles in width. The spring rains ceased that year in the latter part of March, after which no rain fell till June 10, when during part of a single afternoon a little fall occurred. This small amount of moisture made no impression on the parched ground, and the great dry spell continued absolutely unbroken until July 2, when enough water was let down from the heavens to make a little bit of mud on the roads. Thus did nature merely tantalize the weary and worried people, for the skies again cleared up and assumed their long wonted brassy hue. This continued till in September, when rains came sufficiently copious to start vegetation, but too late to help the sufferers. As this terrible long and dry summer wore on the wells went dry, springs failed, brooks and creeks went dry, and rivers were reduced to mere tiny rivulets meandering along the bottoms of former deep channels. The life ordinarily sustained in the waters was destroyed very largely. Vegetation of course shriveled up. The grass crop became a mere matted tangle of dry and inflammable stuff. The setting of a fire among it was very dangerous, for the flames would run like fiery serpents in all directions. The settlers had to be exceedingly careful as to every spark of fire all through that dreadful summer. Great trouble was experienced with the dust. It was everywhere. Even in meadows one walking would stir up great clouds of it like horses on the roads. Grain crops were practically destroyed. For the most part no attempt was made to harvest them, as they could not have been made to pay for even the time spent in gathering them. The effect of the drought was quite noticeable in the forests, where the trees shed their foliage early in the summer, and the leaves which did not fall dried up on the branches. The only things which seemed to thrive during the dry spell were the grasshoppers, which were reduced at length to the eating of thistles and elders to sustain life. The scarcity of feed which followed compelled the owners of stock to sell at low prices, or to send their animals down into the Scioto valley or over into Pennsylvania. This great drought brought total ruin to many a hard-working man, and it took others many years to recover their lost standing with the world. It is safe to say that never while he lives will any man forget the drought of 1845, who, as a man and a farmer, tried to live unharmed through it. C. L. SMITH.

Abyssinian Money.

The Emperor Menelik has had a curious experience in his efforts to replace barter by a metallic currency in Abyssinia. The Maria Theresa thaler has for generations been current, but for want of a smaller coinage salt blocks became the standard of exchange and resisted all efforts, even of the emperor, to replace them by a new currency coined in Paris some years ago. The salt blocks have given way, but the people will not touch. The new standard of value is—the rifle cartridge.

INTERNATIONAL SPORT.

English College Lacrosse Players to Invade America.

The combined lacrosse team from the two English universities, which is to tour the United States this summer, as at present arranged will consist of ten or eleven. Cantabs and five or six Oxonians.

The team will be organized under the auspices of the Cambridge University Lacrosse club and is not to be regarded as an Oxford-Cambridge team, because the Cambridge club is twenty years old, while the Oxford club is only in its first season and therefore could not accept challenges or arrange for such a tour.

At the same time the first lacrosse match between the Oxford and Cambridge clubs, held recently, demonstrated that the Oxonians were justified in accompanying the Cantabs, but not in taking a leading or equal part in the tour. The tour itself, in fact, is regarded rather in the light of gaining valuable experience for the English players than meeting the American and much less the Canadian clubs on equal terms. From this point of view the tour has the full approval of the leading English lacrosse associations, and the universities' team proposes to sail about June 10, arriving in New York June 17.

The first match will be played with Harvard, and this is considered a happy fixture, as it will precede the Har-
